“World Order in the Age of Trump”
Kerry A. Chase, Department of Politics

1. World order
   a. Foundation stones: alliances, institutions, agreements
   b. Domestic correlate: ‘establishment internationalism’
   c. Building commitments to last in the US political system

2. Trump turmoil
   a. ‘America First’
   b. Raising doubts
   c. Moving the goal posts
   d. Walking away

Case examples:
– TPP; Paris climate accord: easy targets
– Iran nuclear deal; NAFTA: testing the waters – NATO; WTO; IMF: future showdowns?

3. Conclusions and the future
   a. Demise of ‘establishment internationalism’ in the US
   b. President’s power of initiative—weak checks and balances
   c. Loss of international reputation takes time to repair
   d. Choices for a post-Trump world: to commit or not?