GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

A LIVING LABORATORY OF NATURE'S DIVERSITY AND ENDLESS WONDERS

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join Brandeis Travelers on an extraordinary voyage to the Galapagos Islands, home to a fascinating array of wildlife inhabiting an unspoiled ecosystem.

Begin in Quito with visits to Casa del Alabado Archaeological Museum, La Compañía de Jesús (the "Golden Church"), colorful San Francisco Plaza and Middle of the World City. Next, we'll embark the Isabela II cruise ship and sail through the archipelago with up-close access to endemic species. Experience encounters with endangered species that inhabit the waters and land of the archipelago. Discover the wonders of this national park, whale sanctuary, and marine reserve.

Walk among curious creatures on shore, snorkel beside sea lions and turtles in the clear waters of the world's second-largest marine reserve, and witness genuine interactions between species in the wild. Visit the Charles Darwin Research Station and the Giant Tortoise Breeding Center, where you'll encounter the magnificent and iconic Galapagos giant tortoise, a species that gives the islands their name. Explore all the Galapagos Islands has to offer with optional activities such as hiking, snorkeling, kayaking, panga rides, and glass-bottom boats.

In partnership with local guides and experts, our tour will be led by Colleen Hitchcock, professor of ecology and chair of Brandeis' environmental studies program. Professor Hitchcock will enrich and inform the journey with her knowledge of biodiversity, ecology, and conservation biology.

Enjoy well-appointed accommodations aboard the Isabela II, a 40-guest vessel with spacious cabins, local cuisine, and onboard amenities. Sailing by small ship allows for flexibility in the itinerary to maximize wildlife viewing, as well as access to exclusive ports.

Join us for a uniquely Brandeisan experience — one that offers stimulating conversation, camaraderie, and connection with other intellectually curious alumni and friends.

Inquire today as space is limited and this small-ship journey is expected to fill quickly. Reserve your space by calling our tour operator, Orbridge, at (866) 639-0079.

Sincerely,

F. Patricia Fisher
