

Sabbatical Funding and Fellowship for All Disciplines

Domestic Opportunities

American Academy of Arts & Sciences: Visiting Scholars Program

Deadline: 10/16

The Visiting Scholars Program is designed to stimulate and support research conducted by younger public policy analysts, humanists, and social scientists who show promise of becoming leaders in their field, especially those who work on multidisciplinary topics. The Program offers opportunities for them to carry out their individual research as well as to collaborate with Academy Fellows on shared scholarly or policy-related interests.

American Antiquarian Society: Fellowships

Deadline: varies by fellowship

Offers three broad categories of visiting research fellowships, with tenures ranging from one to twelve months. All of the fellowships are designed to enable scholars, advanced graduate students, and others to spend an uninterrupted block of time doing research in the AAS library on their projects and discussing their work with others.

American Association of University Women: AAUW Fellowships and Grants

American Council of Learned Societies: Charles A. Ryskamp Research Fellowships

Deadline: 9/28

These fellowships support advanced assistant professors and untenured associate professors in the humanities and related social sciences whose scholarly contributions have advanced their fields and who have well-designed and carefully developed plans for new research. The fellowships are intended to provide time and resources to enable these faculty members to conduct their research under optimal conditions. The ultimate goal of the project should be a major piece of scholarly work by the applicant. The sponsor does not fund creative work (e.g., novels or films), textbooks, straightforward translation, or pedagogical projects.

American Council of Learned Societies: Collaborative Research Fellowships

Deadline: 9/28

These awards support collaborative research in the humanities and related social sciences. The aim of this fellowship program is to offer small teams of two or more scholars the opportunity to collaborate intensively on a single, substantive project. The fellowship supports projects that aim to produce a tangible research product (such as joint print or web publications) for which two or more collaborators will take credit.

American Council of Learned Societies: Digital Innovation Fellowships

Deadline: 9/28

Supports digitally based research projects in all disciplines of the humanities and humanities-related social sciences. This year's successful applicants may take up the fellowship in 2012-2013 or at any time up to September 1, 2013, with tenure completed by June 30, 2014. Fellowship tenure may be one continuous year, or two semesters taken over two years, but candidates must commit themselves firmly to their preferred timeframe on their completed applications.

American Council of Learned Societies: Fellowships

Deadline: 9/28

Invites research applications in all disciplines of the humanities and humanities-related social sciences. The Fellowships are intended as salary replacement to help scholars devote six to twelve continuous months to full-time research and writing. An ACLS Fellowship may be held concurrently with other fellowships and grants and any sabbatical pay, up to an amount equal to the candidate's current academic year salary. Tenure of the fellowship may begin no earlier than July 1, 2012 and no later than February 1, 2013. The ultimate goal of the project should be a major piece of scholarly work by the applicant. ACLS does not fund creative work (e.g., novels or films), textbooks, straightforward translation, or pedagogical projects.

American Council of Learned Societies: Frederick Burkhardt Residential Fellowships for Recently Tenured Scholars

Deadline: 9/28

These fellowships support long-term, unusually ambitious projects in the humanities and related social sciences. Burkhardt Fellowships are intended to support an academic year (normally nine months) of residence at any one of the national residential research centers participating in the program. Such an environment, beyond providing free time, encourages exchanges across disciplinary lines that can be especially helpful to deepening and expanding the significance of projects in the humanities and related social sciences. Candidates must also commit themselves to relocating as needed in order to be in residence for the tenure of the fellowship. The ultimate goal of the project should be a major piece of scholarly work by the applicant.

American Institute of Physics: State Department Science Fellowship Program

The sponsor provides a one-year Fellowship which enables one scientist annually to work at the State Department's Washington, DC headquarters. The aim of the Fellowship is to provide an opportunity for a scientist to contribute scientific and technical expertise to the Department and raise awareness of the value of scientific input. In turn, scientists broaden their experience by interacting with policymakers in the federal government and learning about the foreign policy process.

American Institute for Yemeni Studies: Programs and Fellowships

Fellowship Deadline: 11/15

American Philological Association: Thesaurus Linguae Latinae Fellowship

The sponsor invites applications for a one-year Fellowship, tenable from July 2012 through June 2013, which will enable an American scholar to participate in the work of the Thesaurus Linguae Latinae Institute in Munich.

American Philosophical Society: Fellowships and Grants

American Political Science Association: Grants, Fellowships, and Other Funding

American Psychology Association: Congressional Fellowship Program

Deadline: 1/7

Provide psychologists with an invaluable public policy learning experience, to contribute to the more effective use of psychological knowledge in government and to broaden awareness about the value of psychology-government interaction among psychologists and within the federal government. Fellows spend one year working on the staff of a member of Congress or congressional committee. Activities may involve drafting legislation, conducting oversight work, assisting with congressional hearings and events, and preparing briefs and speeches. Fellows also attend a two-week orientation program on congressional and executive branch operations, which includes guidance in the congressional placement process, and participate in a year-long seminar series on science and public policy issues. The American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) administers these aspects of the program for the APA Fellows and for fellows sponsored by over two dozen other professional societies.

American Statistical Association: Research Fellowships and Grants

Archaeological Institute of America: Fellowships and Grants

Argonne National Laboratory: Faculty Research Leave \(Sabbatical Leave\)

The sponsor provides the opportunity for faculty members to spend their sabbatical leave at the Laboratory to conduct research. Appointments are normally for nine to twelve months.

Association for Asian Studies: Grants and Fellowships

Association for Institutional Research

The Association for Institutional Research (AIR), with support from the National Science Foundation (NSF), and the National Postsecondary Education Cooperative (NPEC), sponsors a grant program titled: Improving Institutional Research in Postsecondary Educational Institutions. The goals of this program are to provide professional development opportunities to doctoral students, institutional researchers, educators, and administrators, and to foster the use of federal databases for institutional research in postsecondary education.

Association for Women in Mathematics: Ruth I. Michler Memorial Prize

Deadline: 11/1

The sponsor's prize is awarded annually to a woman recently promoted to Associate Professor or an equivalent position in the mathematical sciences. The prize provides a fellowship for the awardee to spend a semester in the Mathematics Department of Cornell University without teaching obligations.

Association of Theological Schools: Henry Luce III Fellows in Theology

The sponsor provides support for theological studies. Up to six fellows will be selected. A fellowship of $75,000 will be awarded for a twelve-month period.

The Bibliographical Society of America: Fellowship Program

Deadline: 12/1

Supports sustained research in topics relating to book production and distribution in Britain during the hand-press period as well as studies of authorship, reading and collecting based on the examination of British books published in that period. Supports bibliographical inquiry as well as research in the history of the book trades and in publishing history. Eligible topics may concentrate on books and documents in any field, but should focus on the book or manuscript (the physical object) as historical evidence. Such topics may include establishing a text or studying the history of book production, publication, distribution, collecting, or reading.

Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts: Fellowships

The Center for Creative Photography: The Ansel Adams Fellowship

This program is designed to promote and support research in the Center's photograph, archive, and library collections. Among the Center's treasures are the complete archives of more than forty major photographers including Ansel Adams, Edward Weston, Wynn Bullock, Aaron Siskind, Frederick Sommer, Louise Dahl-Wolfe, W. Eugene Smith, and Garry Winogrand. See the Collections and Archives pages for additional information.

The Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange: Scholar Grants

Deadline: 10/15

The Foundation's grants provide support for research on Chinese Studies in the humanities and social sciences.

Congressional Budget Office/United States Congress: Economic Policy Fellowships

The program provides experienced economists with a unique opportunity to address complex budgetary and economic policy issues. While in residence, fellows will conduct research based on a submitted proposal, use the agency's data and facilities, and work daily with colleagues at CBO to contribute to analyses and publications. Fellows will also be able to participate in professional development opportunities and will be in an excellent position to draw on the resources of experts at CBO, at other federal agencies, and within the extended policy community in Washington, D.C.

Consortium of Humanities Centers and Institutes: Opportunities

Established in 1988, the Consortium of Humanities Centers and Institutes serves as a site for the discussion of issues germane to the fostering of cross-disciplinary activity and as a network for the circulation of information and the sharing of resources within the humanities and interpretive social sciences. CHCI has a membership of over 150 centers and institutes that are remarkably diverse in size and scope and are located in the United States, Australia, Canada, China, Korea, Finland, Taiwan, Ireland, United Kingdom, and other countries.

Cornell University: Society for the Humanities Fellowships

Deadline: 10/1

Six to eight Fellows will be appointed. The focal theme for 2012-2013 is — RISK @ Humanities." They seek interdisciplinary projects that reflect on historical, theoretical, and global understandings of risk as a concept and a reality that lies at the heart of the humanities and the arts. The Society wishes to open the question of how risk shapes the humanities and how the humanities might dialogue with broader biological, ecological, economic, and technological approaches to risk.

Council on Foreign Relations: International Affairs Fellowships

Seeks to bridge the gap between analysis and action in foreign policy by inviting individuals from the academic, business, government, media, and religious communities to engage in a variety of policy studies and actively participate in policymaking. The distinctive character of the program lies in the contrasting experiences it provides at the juncture of policy research and policy formulation. Academic and other professionals from the private sector spend fellowship tenures in public service or in a policymaking setting, while government officials have the opportunity to study foreign policy issues in a scholarly atmosphere free from operational pressure.

Earhart Foundation: Fellowship Research Grants

Deadline: open

The sponsor provides research fellowships to individuals in the social sciences and humanities disciplines, including economics, philosophy, history, international affairs and government/politics. The supported research should lead to the advancement of knowledge through teaching, lecturing, and publication. Contact the foundation directly for the RFP: Program Officer / Earhart Foundation / 2200 Green Road, Suite H / Ann Arbor, MI 48105 / Telephone: (319) 761-8592.

Emory University Robert W. Woodruff Library: Fellowships

Manuscript, Archives, & Rare Book Library (MARBL) offers short-term fellowships to support scholarly use of the Library's research collections in three strategic areas:

- English-language literature
- The Raymond Danowski Poetry Library
- African American history and culture

Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies: Shorenstein Fellowships in Contemporary Asia

Deadline: 12/31

The primary focus of the program is contemporary political, economic, or social change in the Asia-Pacific region (including Northeast, Southeast, and South Asia), or topics in international relations and international political economy. Fellows must be in residence for at least three academic quarters, beginning the fall quarter of the 2012 academic year. They take part in center activities throughout the academic year, and are required to present their research findings in center seminars. Fellows also participate in the center's publication program. The fellowship includes a stipend of $45,000, plus $3,000 for research materials.

East-West Center: POSCO Visiting Fellowship Program

Deadline: 12/31

The East-West Center proposes to invite four to six visiting fellows who will spend one or two months each carrying out policy-related research on issues regarding Northeast Asia that are of common concern -- such as globalization, economic regionalism, economic restructuring, political change, and the changing East Asian security environment, including the Korean Peninsula. The POSCO Fellowship Program is intended to generate constructive and informative research on four important issues: (1) issues concerning the two Koreas and Northeast Asia; (2) security issues for Korea and Northeast Asia; (3) economic and social aspects of Korea-related issues; (4) political aspects of Korea-related issues. POSCO visiting fellows are in residence at the East-West Center and are provided with a stipend and round trip economy airfare to Honolulu. They are required to give one seminar, prepare a high quality paper to be submitted for publication, and join in East-West Center activities. The Fellow may also be asked to participate in local outreach and public diplomacy activities.

Folger Shakespeare Library Research Fellowships

Deadline: 11/1/ (for long-term fellowships) and 3/1 (for short-term fellowships)

The Folger Shakespeare Library offers research fellowships to encourage access to its exceptional collections and to encourage ongoing cross-disciplinary dialogue among scholars of the early modern period. Each year, scholars may compete for a limited number of long-term (six to nine months) and short-term (one to three months) fellowships.

Ford Foundation: Fellowship Program

The Foundation seeks to increase the diversity of the nation's college and university faculties by increasing their ethnic and racial diversity, to maximize the educational benefits of diversity, and to increase the number of professors who can and will use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. Eligibility to apply for a Ford fellowship is limited to:

- All citizens or nationals of the United States regardless of race, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or sexual orientation,
- Individuals with evidence of superior academic achievement (such as grade point average, class rank, honors or other designations),
- Individuals committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level.

Foundation of the American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works:

FAIC/Samuel H. Kress Conservation Publication Fellowship

Deadline: 11/1

The sponsor provides support to current Professional Associate or Fellow members of AIC in support of the goal of improving the quality and quantity of publications in the field of conservation by encouraging conservation professionals to prepare publishable manuscripts.

Fox \(Bill and Carol\) Center for Humanistic Inquiry at Emory University: Junior and Post-Doctoral Fellows Program

Deadline: 2/18

The sponsor awards up to three annual Junior and Post-Doctoral Fellowships for an academic year of study, teaching, and residence in the Center. The purpose of the program is to stimulate and support humanistic research by providing scholars in early stages of their careers with the necessary time, space, and other resources. In addition, the Program was created to allow the Emory community access to a range of humanistic work by visiting scholars from other institutions.

The Frick Collection/Center for the History of Collecting in America: Scholars' Program Fellowships

Deadline: 8/15

The sponsor offers short-term Senior fellowships (8–10 weeks) and long-term (4–5 months) Leon Levy Fellowships for post-doctoral and senior scholars. In all cases preference will be given to researchers whose projects are particularly appropriate to the resources available at the Frick Art Reference Library. Fellowship proposals may address wide-ranging aspects of the history of collecting in the United States, from Colonial times to the present, and may focus on individual collectors, dealers, developments or trends in the art market. Interdisciplinary research subjects are especially encouraged.

The George A. and Eliza Gardner Howard Foundation

Deadline: 11/1

The Howard Foundation awards a limited number of fellowships each year for independent projects in selected fields. The Foundation targets its support specifically to early mid-career individuals, those who have achieved recognition for at least one major project. Approximately ten fellowships will be awarded in April 2011 for 2011-2012 in the fields of Creative Non-Fiction, Literary Translation (into English), Film Studies, Literary Studies.

The German Marshall Fund of the United States: Fellowships

The Getty: Residential Grants and Fellowships

Residential research grants at the Getty Center in Los Angeles are open to researchers of all nationalities who are working in the arts, humanities, or social sciences. Residential research grants are also open to specialists in the field of conservation, with an emphasis on the visual arts (including sites, buildings, objects) and the theoretical underpinnings of the field.

Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History: Scholarly Fellowships

Deadline: 5/1

Supports work in these five archives, as well as any other NYC research archives that may not be listed below:

- The Gilder Lehrman Collection, on deposit at the New York Historical Society--The Gilder Lehrman Collection consists of letters and diaries, maps, pamphlets, sketchbooks, printed books, photographs, and other materials. The collection's holdings range from Columbus to recent times, but concentrate in the period from 1760 to 1876.

- The Library of the New York Historical Society--One of the oldest research libraries in the United States, with vast manuscript and printed book collections covering four centuries, and one of the world's largest collections of pre-1820 newspapers.
- The Columbia University Rare Book and Manuscript Collection--This archive of Columbia University is particularly strong in English and American literature and history, the classics, the history of publishing, New York City politics, and journalism.
- The New York Public Library Humanities and Social Sciences Library--The library's research holdings are strong in every period of American history, in both manuscripts and books. Among many highlights are materials on the founding fathers and the Civil War, records of renowned authors and publishing houses, religious collections, and papers of diverse political figures.
- The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture (NYPL)--One of the premier archives of African- American history, art, and culture, the Center's archives contain extensive materials on the history of slavery and abolition, the African diaspora, religion, African- American culture, and the Civil Rights Movement.

The Harry Ransom Center at the University of Texas at Austin: Research Fellowship

Deadline: 2/1

The Ransom Center annually awards 50 fellowships to support scholarly research projects in all areas of the humanities, including literature, photography, film, art, the performing arts, music, and cultural history. Applicants must demonstrate the necessity of substantial on-site use of the Center's collections.

Harvard College Library: Visiting Fellowships

Deadline: 1/14

The Library's holdings are particularly strong in the following areas: European, English, American, and South American literature, including the country's pre-eminent collection of American literary manuscripts; philosophy; religion; history of science; music; printing and graphic arts; dance; and theatre. Fellows will also have access to collections in Widener Library as well as to other libraries at the University. Preference is given to scholars whose research is closely based on materials in Houghton collections, especially when those materials are unique.

Harvard University Davis Center for Russian and Eurasian Studies: Senior Fellowships

Each year, the Davis Center provides financial support for scholars to conduct research at Harvard University. Successful candidates combine disciplinary excellence in the humanities or social sciences, or significant work experience, with an area focus in Russia, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, and/or the Caucasus.

Harvard University Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection: Fellowships

Dumbarton Oaks offers residential fellowships in three areas of study: Byzantine Studies (including related aspects of late Roman, early Christian, Western medieval, Slavic, and Near Eastern studies), Pre-Columbian Studies (of Mexico, Central America, and Andean South America), and Garden and Landscape Studies.

Harvard University Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study: Fellowship Program

The Radcliffe Institute Fellowship Program is a scholarly community where individuals pursue advanced work across a wide range of academic disciplines, professions, and creative arts. Radcliffe Institute fellowships are designed to support scholars, scientists, artists, and writers of exceptional promise and demonstrated accomplishment who wish to pursue work in academic and professional fields and in the creative arts. In recognition of Radcliffe's historic contributions to the education of women and to the study of issues related to women, the Radcliffe Institute sustains a continuing commitment to the study of women, gender, and society. Applicants' projects need not focus on gender, however. Women and men from across the United States and throughout the world, including developing countries, are encouraged to apply. The Institute seeks to build a community of fellows that is diverse in every way.

Herbert D. Katz Center for Advanced Judaic Studies \(University Of Pennsylvania\): Fellowships 2011–2012: Travel Facts, Travel Fictions, and the Performance of Jewish Identity

Deadline: 11/10

Each year, this residential fellowship program invites roughly 20 scholars in the humanities and social sciences at all levels to conduct research on a specific theme within the various fields of Judaic studies. This year's theme is Travel Facts, Travel Fictions, and the Performance of Jewish Identity. Stipend amounts are based on a fellow's academic standing and financial need with a maximum of $40,000 for the academic year.

Historic New Orleans Collection: Dianne Woest Fellowship in the Arts and Humanities

Deadline: 11/1

The annual fellowship supports scholarly research on the history and culture of Louisiana and the Gulf South.

Howard V. and Edna H. Hong Kierkegaard Library: Visiting Scholars Program

The sponsor offers the Visiting Scholars Program for those wishing to utilize the Kierkegaard Library at St. Olaf College. Scholars are invited to visit the Kierkegaard Library for the purpose of pursuing their own research at any time during the year provided the Library is open. The possibility of obtaining support and/or housing will vary depending upon the circumstances of individual scholars and the dates involved. Scholars with support from their own institutions or grant-funded projects are welcome. See also Kierkegaard House Foundation Fellowships.

The Huntington: Fellowships

Deadline: 12/15

The Huntington is an independent research center with holdings in British and American history, literature, art history, and the history of science and medicine.

Indiana University Lilly Library: Visiting Fellowships

Deadlines: 4/15 and 10/15

The Lilly Library, the principal rare book and manuscript library of Indiana University, invites applications for visiting fellowships for research in residence in its collections. Its holdings support research in British, French, and American literature and history; the literature of voyages and exploration, specifically the European expansion in the Americas; early printing, and the Church, children's literature, music; film, radio and television; medicine, science, and architecture; and food and drink.

Institute for Advanced Study

Deadline: varies by school

Each year, the Institute for Advanced Study selects approximately 190 Members from an average of more than 1,500 applicants. Members are selected by the Faculty of each School, and come to the Institute for periods as short as one term or as long as several years. Young scholars and applicants from non-traditional backgrounds who have outstanding promise are considered, as are senior scholars whose reputations are already well established. The major consideration in the appointment process is the expectation that each Member's period of residence at the Institute will result in work of significance and originality. Many Members pursue research related to the special interests of one or more of the Faculty. In other instances, the research of Members is in areas not currently represented by a member of the Faculty. Applications must be submitted during the academic year preceding the year of membership.

Application materials and guidelines are available from each of the four Schools:

- School of Historical Studies
- School of Mathematics
- School of Natural Sciences
- School of Social Science

For information on applying to one of the Special Programs, please visit:

- Program for Women and Mathematics
- Institute for Advanced Study/Park City Mathematics Institute
- Prospects in Theoretical Physics

Institute for Human Sciences: Fellowships

Deadlines: vary by fellowship

Institute for Research on Poverty: Visiting Scholars Programs

Deadline: 6/30

The sponsor invites applications from U.S.-based social science scholars from underrepresented racial and ethnic groups to visit IRP, interact with its faculty in residence, and become acquainted with the staff and resources of the Institute.

International Center for Jefferson Studies: Gilder Lehrman Junior Research Fellowship

Deadline: 11/1

These fellowships are open to scholars working on Jefferson projects. Fellows will devote their time to research and writing on topics directly related to Thomas Jefferson, his times, and legacy.

The James McKeen Cattell Fund: Fellowships \(Psychology\)

Deadline: 12/1

For over half a century, the James McKeen Cattell Fund has provided support for the science and the application of psychology. The Fund offers a program of supplementary sabbatical awards ("James McKeen Cattell Fund Fellowships"). These awards supplement the regular sabbatical allowance provided by the recipients' home institutions, to allow an extension of leave-time from one to two semesters.

The John Carter Brown Library: Fellowships

Deadline: 1/3

Offers short-term and long-term fellowships. Sponsorship of research at the John Carter Brown Library is reserved exclusively for scholars whose work is centered on the colonial history of the Americas, North and South, including all aspects of the European, African, and Native American involvement.

The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts: Kennedy Center Fellowship Program provides comprehensive study to up to ten arts managers at the Washington, D.C.-based John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts with coursework in strategic planning, marketing, and development; three practical work rotations in center departments; and a series of professional development seminars.

John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum: Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr. Fellowship

Deadline: 8/15

Scholars are invited by the Kennedy Library to apply for the Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr. Research Fellowships. Schlesinger Fellowships carry a stipend of up to $5,000, which may be awarded to a single individual or divided between two recipients. They are intended to support scholars in the production of substantial works on the foreign policy of the Kennedy years, especially with regard to the western hemisphere, or on Kennedy domestic policy, especially with regard to racial justice and to the conservation of natural resources.

The John Nicholas Brown Center for Public Humanities and Cultural Heritage: Fellowship Program

Deadlines: Applications are due by April 1 for summer or fall appointments and by October 1 for spring appointments.

These fellowships are intended to encourage reflection and writing on issues related to public humanities and cultural heritage. Available for periods of up to three months, and open to academics, staff at cultural organizations, and independent scholars and consultants, the public humanities fellowship provides a place to work, access to Brown University libraries, participation in a community of interested faculty, students, and public humanists, and a stipend of $2000 per month.

The John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation: Fellowships to Assist Research and Artistic Creation

Deadline: 9/15

Intended for men and women who have already demonstrated exceptional capacity for productive scholarship or exceptional creative ability in the arts. Fellowships are awarded through two annual competitions: one open to citizens and permanent residents of the United States and Canada, and the other open to citizens and permanent residents of Latin America and the Caribbean. The Foundation makes awards to advanced professionals -- writers, scholars, or scientists who have a significant record of publication; or artists, playwrights, filmmakers, photographers, composers, or the like, who have a significant record of exhibition or performance of their work.

Kellogg Institute for International Studies: Visiting Residential Fellowships

The sponsor offers residential Visiting Fellowships which are designed to provide applicants with the time and space to work on research, while interacting with leading scholars. The sponsor offers numerous opportunities to explore the work of noted scholars through seminars, conferences, and roundtable discussions. The sponsor focuses on the following research themes: democratization and the quality of democracy; growth and development in the global economy; religion, society and its influence on political, social, and cultural change; public policies for social justice; and social movements and organized civil society.

The Library of Congress/The John W. Kluge Center: Fellowships

The Kluge Center accommodates up to two dozen post-doctoral Fellows pursuing resident research, usually for periods from six to twelve months. Interdisciplinary and cross-cultural topics of a kind normally not encouraged in specialized departmental settings are welcome. Selection of a diverse group of Fellows is by various competitions. Post-doctoral Fellows have an opportunity to discuss their research with the Kluge Scholars and to explore possibilities for intellectual collaboration with other Fellows.

Loeb Classical Library Foundation: Fellowship

Deadline: 11/1

Loeb Classical Library Foundation grants range from $1,000 – $35,000 and provide support for research, publication, and other projects in the area of classical studies. Grants may be used for a wide variety of purposes, including publication of research, enhancement of sabbaticals, travel to libraries or collections, dramatic productions, excavation expenses, or cost of research materials.

Lower Manhattan Cultural Council: Swing Space

Swing Space is a project-based residency program that places visual and performing artists and arts groups in space for the development and presentation of new projects. Swing Space is designed to address short-term space needs for a wide range of projects, and to encourage creative, experimental and collaborative approaches to artistic practice in unconventional spaces. Selected applicants are expected to relocate to the New York City metropolitan area for the duration of the residency.

Property and Environment Research Center (PERC): Lone Mountain Fellowship and The Julian Simon Fellowship

Lone Mountain Fellowships offer a unique opportunity for scholars, journalists, policy-makers, and environmentalists to advance our understanding of the role of markets and property rights in protecting and enhancing environmental resources. Lone Mountain Fellows are resident at PERC in Bozeman, Montana, for periods ranging from a week to a year, depending on the nature of their projects.

The Julian Simon Fellowship is one of the nation's most prestigious opportunities for scholars to develop policy-oriented research on natural resource and environmental conservation. The in-residence fellowship is intended to continue the legacy of the late Julian Simon, whose research led to a massive re-evaluation by scholars and policy makers of their views on the interplay between population, natural resources, and the environment.

The Massachusetts Historical Society: Fellowships Program

Deadline: varies by fellowship

The Massachusetts Historical Society (MHS) is a major research library and manuscript repository. Its holdings encompass millions of rare and unique documents and artifacts vital to the study of American history, many of them irreplaceable national treasures. In addition to approximately 20 short-term fellowships, the Society will help to provide at least 11 New England Regional Fellowship Consortium grants for projects that draw on the resources of several participating institutions, and at least two long-term MHS-NEH fellowships for study at the MHS. Each summer the Society offers 2-3 fellowships for K-12 teachers. During 4 weeks of on-site research at the MHS, teachers prepare a curriculum or comparable project based on primary documents to enhance instruction in American history, language arts, or science.

Mathematical Sciences Research Institute

Deadline: varies by program

Acknowledged as the premier center for collaborative mathematical research, MSRI organizes and hosts semester-length (or two-semesters duration) programs that become the leading edge in that field of study. Mathematicians worldwide come to the Institute to engage in the research of classical fundamental mathematics, modern applied mathematics, statistics, computer science, and other mathematical sciences.

Mount Desert Island \(MDIBL\) Visiting Scientist Program

Deadline: January

MDIBL has a 111-year history of encouraging short and long-term scientific visits. They welcome individual scientists as well as scientific teams. Physician-scientists, basic research scientists, and all levels of students come to MDIBL to collaborate, conduct experiments, share ideas, and generate new knowledge. Visiting scientists include adjunct faculty who have come to MDIBL annually for many years and new investigators who receive research fellowships to carry out new experiments during their visits. MDIBL strives to recruit promising leaders in their respective research fields and to offer a location and resources for scientific teams to gather for intensive study of important problems in biology and medicine. MDIBL staff work with all investigators to facilitate research efforts through easy access to animal models and technical resources. For more information, please contact Dr. Charles Wray.

Memorial Foundation for Jewish Culture International Fellowships in Jewish Studies

Deadline: 10/31

The purpose of the Foundation's Fellowship program is to assist well-qualified individuals in carrying out an independent scholarly, literary or art project, in a field of Jewish specialization, which makes a significant contribution to the understanding, preservation, enhancement or transmission of Jewish culture.

Metropolitan Museum of Art: Art History Fellowship

These scholarships are generally reserved for mature scholars of demonstrated ability. Support is provided for up to one year's study or research at the Metropolitan Museum of Art or abroad in any branch of the fine arts relating to the Museum's collection. The fields of research for art history candidates include Asian art, arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas, antiquities, arms and armor, costumes, drawings, illuminated manuscripts, paintings, photographs, prints, sculpture, textiles, and Western art. Some art history fellowships for travel abroad are also available for students whose projects involve firsthand examination of paintings in major European collections. Also see other fellowships offered at the Met.

Metropolitan Museum of Art: Conservation and Scientific Research Fellowships 2012–2013

Provide training, hands-on treatment of works of art, and research opportunities for junior conservators and scientists in the field. The fellowships also support senior scholars carrying out independent research projects related to the Museum's collections.

Monell Chemical Senses Center Postdoctoral Fellowship Program

The sponsor offers postdoctoral positions with a research focus on understanding how the chemical senses function and their importance in everyday life. Positions are currently available for interdisciplinary training and research in the areas of Sensation and Perception, Genetics, Neuroscience and Molecular Biology, Environmental and Occupational Health, Nutrition and Appetite, Health and Well-Being, and Chemical Ecology and Communication. Approaches include clinical medicine, chemistry, biochemistry, organismal and molecular biology, animal and human psychophysics, organ- and neurophysiology, including single cell, whole nerve and in situ brain recordings, neuroanatomy, experimental psychology, environmental sampling and human exposure assessment.

National Endowment for Democracy \(NED\) Fellowships

Deadline: 11/1

Reagan-Fascell Democracy Fellows maintain full-time residence at the International Forum for Democratic Studies, NED's research arm located in Washington, D.C. The Forum hosts 16 to 20 Reagan-Fascell Fellows per year for periods ranging from five to ten months. NED's International Forum for Democratic Studies also hosts a small number of Visiting Fellows each year. Visiting Fellows are scholars and practitioners who wish to conduct research and writing at the Forum for a limited period of time but do not need any financial assistance.

National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships

Deadline: 5/3 (for projects beginning no earlier than 1/1/12)

Support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both. Recipients usually produce articles, monographs, books, digital materials, archaeological site reports, translations, editions, or other scholarly resources. Fellowships support continuous full-time work for a period of six to twelve months.

National Endowment for the Humanities: Teaching Fellowships

Deadline: 10/1

Teaching Development Fellowships (TDF) support college and university teachers pursuing research aimed specifically at improving their undergraduate teaching. The program has three broad goals: 1) to improve the quality of humanities education in the United States; 2) to strengthen the link between research and teaching in the humanities; and 3) to foster excellence in undergraduate instruction.

National Gallery of Art Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts: Visiting Senior Fellowship Program

Fellowships are for full-time research, and scholars are expected to reside in Washington and to participate in the activities of the Center throughout the fellowship period. Lectures, colloquia, and informal discussions complement the fellowship program. Applications will be considered for study in the history, theory, and criticism of the visual arts (painting, sculpture, architecture, landscape architecture, urbanism, prints and drawings, film, photography, decorative arts, industrial design, and other arts) of any geographical area and of any period. Applications are also solicited from scholars in other disciplines whose work examines artifacts or has implications for the analysis and criticism of visual form.

National Humanities Center: Fellowships

Deadline: 10/15

The National Humanities Center offers 40 residential fellowships for advanced study in the humanities during the academic year. Young scholars as well as senior scholars are encouraged to apply, but they must have a record of publication, and recent Ph.D.s should be aware that the Center does not support the revision of a doctoral dissertation. In addition to scholars from all fields of the humanities, the Center accepts individuals from the natural and social sciences, the arts, the professions, and public life who are engaged in humanistic projects. The Center is also international and gladly accepts applications from scholars outside the United States. Most of the Center's fellowships are unrestricted. Several, however, are designated for particular areas of research. These include one fellowship for a young woman in philosophy and fellowships for environmental studies; English literature; art history; Asian Studies; and theology.

National Evolutionary Synthesis Center: Traditional Sabbaticals

Deadlines: 7/1, 12/1

The sponsor provides stipends equivalent to half-salary fellowships (matching contribution of home institution) to support ambitious, synthetic research on any aspect of evolutionary biology and relevant disciplines.

National Research Council: Research Associateship Programs

The mission of the NRC Research Associateship Programs (RAP) is to promote excellence in scientific and technological research conducted by the U. S. government through the administration of programs offering graduate, postdoctoral, and senior level research opportunities at sponsoring federal laboratories and affiliated institutions.

National Renewable Energy Laboratory: Sabbaticals and Faculty Appointments

The sponsor provides support for an in-residence sabbatical program for senior scientists or engineers, with established records of research productivity and accomplishments, who are on leave from an academic, business, or governmental institution. The sponsor's research programs include the following areas: National Center for Photovoltaics; National Bioenergy Center; National Wind Technology Center; Buildings and Thermal Systems; Chemical and Biosciences Center; Hydrogen Technologies and Systems Center; Materials Science Center; Scientific Computing Center; and Transportation Technologies and Systems Center.

National Security Agency: Mathematical Sciences Program Sabbaticals

The sabbaticals primarily involve cryptanalysis, a discipline highly dependent on superior math ability. Other sabbatical work involves algebra, probability, statistics, number theory, and discrete mathematics.

The Newberry Library: Long-Term Fellowships

Deadline: 1/10

Offers a variety of long-term fellowships (see link for list) to post-doctoral scholars for periods of six to eleven months. Applicants for post-doctoral awards must hold the Ph.D. at the time of application. These grants support individual research and promote serious intellectual exchange through active participation in the Library's scholarly activities, including a biweekly fellows' seminar. The stipends for these fellowships range from $25,200 to $50,400. Applicants may combine these fellowship awards with sabbatical or other stipendiary support.

The Newberry Library: Short-Term Fellowships

Deadline: 2/10

Offers a variety of short-term fellowships (see link for list) which are generally restricted to post-doctoral scholars, Ph.D. candidates, or holders of other terminal degrees from outside of the Chicago area who have a specific need for Newberry collections. The tenure of short-term fellowships varies from one to two months, unless otherwise noted under the award description. Unless otherwise noted, the amount of the award is $1600 per month.

New York Mills Regional Cultural Center: Arts Retreat Program

Deadline: 4/1

Artists from all performance or visual media will be considered for a retreat. The selection committee awards retreats to artists based on merit and plan of work during the retreat period. The retreat program provides stays of two to six weeks for artists at no cost for room. Each artist provides her or his own transportation and board. There is no stipend.

New York Public Library: Fellowships at the Cullman Center

The Dorothy and Lewis B. Cullman Center for Scholars and Writers offers fellowships to people whose work will benefit directly from access to the research collections at the Stephen A. Schwarzman Building at Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street (formerly the Humanities and Social Sciences Library).

Renowned for the extraordinary comprehensiveness of its collections, the Library is one of the world's preeminent resources for study in anthropology, art, geography, history, languages and literature, philosophy, politics, popular culture, psychology, religion, sociology, and sports.

NSF: Methodology, Measurement, and Statistics \(MMS\) Mid-Career Research Fellowships

Deadlines: 8/16 and 1/16 annually

The sponsor supports mid-career research fellowships in the social, behavioral, economic, and statistical sciences. The primary goal of the fellowships is to facilitate the development of innovative methods and models for understanding complex social and behavioral science phenomena. A secondary goal is to facilitate interactions across the social, behavioral, economic, statistical, and other relevant sciences.

Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education: Academic Fellowships and Scholarships, Research Experiences, Sabbaticals, and Internships: For College and University Faculty

Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education: Research Participation Program for the U.S. Army Research Institute for Environmental Medicine \(USARIEM\)

The sponsor provides support for opportunities to participate in research at the U.S. Army Research Institute for Environmental Medicine (USARIEM). The institute functions as a world-class laboratory for environmental medicine, physiology, performance and nutrition research. It features integrated cellular, tissue, & human research programs. Opportunities exist in the areas of Performance Optimization, Preventive Medicine & Planning, Materiel Development, Monitoring Strategies and Predictive Algorithms, and Health Hazard Assessment. Areas of interest include life, health, and medical sciences; mathematics; computer science; physical sciences; social and behavioral sciences; engineering; biological sciences, chemistry, entomology, environmental/civil/mechanical engineering, environmental sciences, industrial hygiene, medical sciences, physical sciences, and toxicology.

Office of Naval Research: Sabbatical Leave Program

The sponsor provides an opportunity for U.S. citizens and legal permanent residents who hold teaching or research appointments at U.S. colleges and universities. These programs provide an opportunity for faculty members to participate in research of mutual interest to the faculty member and professional peers at U.S. Navy Laboratories.

Open Society Foundations: Open Society Fellowships

Supports individuals who are developing innovative solutions to pressing open society challenges. The fellowship program seeks applicants eager to communicate original and provocative ideas to a broad audience, as well as to shape policy and inspire critical debate among activists, intellectuals, decision makers, and the public. The program also aims to sharpen OSI's thinking, question its assumptions, and broaden its understanding of pivotal problems. Below are some possible topic areas that fellows may explore in the coming years:

- Global migration and the rights of displaced minorities Organized crime, corruption, and state failure
- The economic crisis and its effect on open societies
- Movement-building and state repression in societies affected by climate change
- The impact of new technologies on citizen access to information and justice
- The link between governance, transparency, and economic development.

Open Society Fellows are currently investigating the corrosive effect of the global arms trade on democratic institutions, the challenges of community organizing in rural America, and new techniques of outreach and communication with victims of mass atrocity.

PhRMA Foundation Sabbatical Fellowship in Informatics and Sabbatical Fellowship in Pharmacology/Toxicology

Princeton University: Hodder Fellowships

The Hodder Fellowship was created for artists in the early stages of their careers. It is awarded to individuals during that crucial period when they have demonstrated exceptional promise but have not yet received widespread recognition. Hodder Fellows may be poets, playwrights, novelists, creative nonfiction writers, translators, or other artists and humanists who have "much more than ordinarily intellectual and literary gifts" and who are selected "for promise rather than performance."

Princeton University: Laurance S. Rockefeller Visiting Fellowships

The sponsor provides support to scholars and teachers to devote a year in residence at Princeton to write about ethics and human values, while participating in various activities of the University Center. The activities include faculty-graduate seminars, colloquia, and public lectures. Fellows will have access to Firestone Library and to a wide range of activities throughout the University.

Princeton University: Program in Law and Public Affairs \(LAPA\) Fellows Program

Deadline: 11/6

The sponsor invites outstanding faculty, independent scholars, lawyers and judges to apply for appointments as fellows for the academic year 2010-2011. Successful candidates will devote an academic year in residence at Princeton to research, discussions and scholarly collaboration on topics broadly related to law and public affairs. Under exceptional circumstances, applications for only one semester in residence may be considered. The sponsor plans to name four general LAPA Fellows plus one Microsoft/LAPA Fellow who specializes in intellectual property or the economic organization of society, and one Mellon/LAPA Fellow in Law and the Humanities. Applicants to the program will be considered for all of these fellowships.

Princeton University Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies: Research Fellowships

The sponsor provides fellowships for scholars to pursue in-residence research and attend a seminar on the academic year's current theme. Eligible applicants are postdoctoral scholars in the U.S. and abroad.

Rice University Humanities Research Center: External Faculty Fellowships

Awards up to four external faculty fellowships for one-semester appointments. Fellows will receive a stipend of $40,000 to $50,000, depending on rank. Fellowships are awarded to support research projects in the humanities. This includes, but is not limited to history, philosophy, languages, literature, linguistics, religious studies, art history and the arts. Proposals employing humanistic approaches are welcome from the anthropology and other social sciences, natural sciences, music, architecture, and engineering. Fellows will teach one course affiliated with a humanities department, and will be in residence at the center during their appointments. The fellows participate in the intellectual life of the center by sharing research activities through a brown bag series with other HRC fellows, or through a presentation or participation in a symposium or conference.

Russell Sage Foundation: Visiting Scholars Program

The sponsor annually awards up to 19 residential fellowships to selected scholars in the social sciences, who are at least several years beyond the Ph.D. The award allows these Visiting Scholars to pursue their research and writing at the Foundation for a period of up to 10 months.

The School for Advanced Research \(SAR\): Resident Scholars

Deadline: 11/1

Awards approximately six Resident Scholar Fellowships each year to scholars who have completed their research and analysis and who need time to think and write about topics important to the understanding of humankind. Resident scholars may approach their research from anthropology or from related fields such as history, sociology, art, and philosophy. Both humanistically and scientifically oriented scholars are encouraged to apply.

Schomburg Center Scholars-in-Residence Program

Deadline: 12/1

The Schomburg Center Scholars-in-Residence Program assists those scholars and professionals whose research in the black experience can benefit from extended access to the Center's resources. Fellowships funded by the Center will allow recipients to spend six months or a year in residence with access to resources at the Schomburg Center and other centers of The New York Public Library. The program encourages research and writing on black history and culture, facilitates interaction among participating scholars, and provides widespread dissemination of findings through lectures, publications, and colloquia and seminars. It encompasses projects in African, Afro-American, and Afro- Caribbean history and culture.

Smithsonian Institution: Fellowships

Deadline: varies by fellowship

Fields of research include: American History, American Material and Folk Culture, and the History of Music and Musical Instruments; History of Science and Technology; History of Art, Design, Crafts, and the Decorative Arts; Anthropology, Archaeology, Linguistics, and Ethnic Studies; Evolutionary, Systematic, Behavioral, Environmental, and Conservation Biology; Earth, Mineral, and Planetary Science; and Materials Characterization and Conservation.

Social Science Research Council \(SSRC\): Fellowships & Grants

Includes Abe Fellowship, supporting U.S. and Japan-based researchers focusing on contemporary issues, the Abe Fellowship Program encourages international multidisciplinary research on topics of pressing global concern.

Society for Research in Child Development: Policy Fellowships

Deadline: 12/15

There are currently two types of Fellowships: Congressional and Executive Branch. Both Fellowships provide exciting opportunities for researchers to come to Washington, DC and use developmental science outside of the academic setting to inform public policy. These Fellowships are open to doctoral scientists from any discipline relevant to child development, and both early and mid-career professionals are encouraged to apply. The goals of the Fellowships are: (1) to contribute to the effective use of scientific knowledge about child development in the formation of public policy; (2) to educate the scientific community about the development of public policy; and (3) to establish a more effective liaison between developmental scientists and the Federal policy-making mechanisms.

Spencer Foundation: Research Grants

The Foundation's research grants are organized under four areas of inquiry that identify broad topics they believe have fundamental and abiding importance for educational improvement. The Relation Between Education and Social Opportunity; Organizational Learning in Schools, School Systems, and Higher Education Systems; Teaching, Learning, and Instructional Resources; and Purposes and Values of Education. They also welcome proposals through their Field-Initiated Proposal program.

Stanford Humanities Center External Faculty Fellowships

Deadline: 10/15

Stanford University Michelle R. Clayman Institute for Gender Research: Faculty Research Fellowships \(Residential\)

The sponsor provides fellowships for faculty members to drive intellectual and social innovation through interdisciplinary gender studies.

Stanford University: Shorenstein Fellowships

Deadline: 12/18

Awards will be made to two junior scholars for research and writing on Asia. The primary focus of the program is contemporary political, economic, or social change in the Asia-Pacific region (including Northeast, Southeast, and South Asia), or topics in international relations and international political economy. Fellows must be in residence for at least three academic quarters.

Stanford University Center for International Security and Cooperation: Fellowships

Deadline: 2/1

CISAC offers pre and postdoctoral and professional fellowships for concentrated study in a multidisciplinary environment. Fellows spend the academic year at Stanford University, where they participate in seminars, and interact with each other as well as faculty and researchers. They are expected to produce a research product (e.g., dissertation chapters, draft articles, a book manuscript). The Center considers applicants working within a broad range of topics related to peace and international security. Suitable topics may include, but are not limited to: transnational processes affecting conflict and human security; the United Nations and global governance; causes and prevention of conflict; determinants of post-war settlements; the interaction of science, politics and policy; nuclear energy and nuclear nonproliferation; proliferation and nonproliferation of nuclear, chemical and biological weapon; terrorism and counter-terrorism; the politics of homeland security; the determinants of foreign and military policy within and across states and regions.

Stanford University Center for Advanced Study in Behavioral Sciences: Residential Fellowship Program

Deadline: 4/6

The Center offers a residential postdoctoral fellowship program for scientists and scholars from this country and abroad. Fellowships are awarded to scholars working in a diverse range of disciplines. These include the five-core social and behavioral disciplines of anthropology, economics, political science, psychology and sociology as well as scholars from a wide range of humanistic disciplines, education, linguistics and the biological sciences. Applicants with a Ph.D., professional degree (e.g., J.D., M.D.) or equivalent foreign degree are eligible to apply. Applicants who have achieved an equivalent level of professional reputation will also be considered. Faculty at all academic levels or independent scholars may apply, provided they exhibit a high level of achievement (adjusted for rank) including a strong record of research publications. Applications are encouraged from junior scholars at least 3 to 4 years past the doctorate, typically for a fellowship year soon after achieving tenure.

The Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute: Fellowships

One of a small number of institutions in the United States that combines a public art museum with a complex of research and academic programs, including a major art history library. The Clark functions as an international center in both the academic and museum fields for research and discussion on the nature of art and its history.

Truman Library Institute: Research Grants Program

Research Grants: Grants of up to $2,500 are awarded biannually and are intended to enable graduate students, post-doctoral scholars and other researchers to come to the Harry S. Truman Library for one to three weeks to use its collections. Awards are to offset expenses incurred for this purpose only.

Scholars Award: Grants of up to $30,000 are made to post-doctoral scholars engaged in work on some aspect of the life and career of Harry S. Truman or of the public and foreign policy issues which were prominent during the Truman years. The award is intended to free a scholar from teaching or other employment for a substantial period of time and allow the scholar to make significant progress on or complete the writing of a major book.

Tulane University/The Murphy Institute's Center for Ethics and Public Affairs: Faculty Fellowships

Fellowships are available to support outstanding faculty whose teaching and research focus on ethics, political philosophy, political theory, or questions of moral choice in areas such as, but not restricted to, business, government, law, economics, and medicine. While fellows will participate in conferences and seminars organized by the Center, they will be expected to devote most of their time to conducting their own research.

The University Of California, Berkeley: S.V. Ciriacy-Wantrup Postdoctoral Fellowships in Natural Resource Economics and Political Economy

The sponsor provides two Fellowships in Natural Resource Economics and Political Economy, to support advanced research at the University of California, Berkeley. The fellowship encourages, but is not limited to, policy-oriented research. Applications are open to scholars from any social science discipline, and related professional fields such as law and planning. Applicants for the one-year postdoctoral award applicant will possess a doctorate or equivalent conferred within the past five years. Applicants for the one-year professional or sabbatical leave award must have received their doctorate or equivalent within the last ten years.

UCLA Library: James and Sylvia Thayer Short-Term Research Fellowships

Deadline: 12/11

The James and Sylvia Thayer Short-Term Research Fellowships support the use of special collections materials by visiting scholars and UCLA graduate students. Collections that are administered by the newly integrated UCLA Library Special Collections and available for Thayer Fellowship-supported research include materials in the humanities and social sciences; medicine; life and physical sciences; visual and performing arts; and UCLA history.

University of Colorado: Cooperative Institute for Research in Environmental Science

Fellows have been conducting interdisciplinary research in areas such as atmosphere and ocean processes, cryospheric processes, ecology and ecosystems, regional/global environmental variability and change, global water cycle, advanced observing systems, geophysics, global health, science and technology policy research, and space weather.

University of Connecticut Humanities Institute: Faculty Residential Fellowships

Deadline: 1/15

Faculty Residential Fellowships are opportunities for individuals to pursue advanced work in the humanities. Applicants may be faculty or staff members of colleges or universities, or scholars and independent writers. Projects may contribute to scholarly knowledge or to the general public's understanding of the humanities. Recipients might eventually produce scholarly articles, a monograph on a specialized subject, a book on a broad topic, an archaeological site report, a translation, an edition, or other scholarly tools.

University of Michigan Center for the Education of Women: Visiting Scholars Program

Deadlines: 3/1 for fall term; 6/1 for winter term

The Visiting Scholar Program is an opportunity for scholars to pursue research projects relevant to women using the vast resources available through the Center for the Education of Women (CEW) and the University of Michigan. Visiting scholars prepare a working paper based upon their research, which is published as part of the Center's series of occasional papers. Scholars are also expected to present their work at a research seminar or workshop.

University of Michigan: Frankel Institute for Advanced Judaic Studies Fellowship Program

The sponsor offers fellowships for scholars to take part in its Institute. The major goal of the Frankel Institute is to provide an intellectually stimulating environment, promote an atmosphere of openness and encourage constructive criticism. It seeks to advance Jewish Studies globally. In addition, the Frankel Institute considers diversity and pluralism as fundamental characteristics of a public university and emphasizes such principles in all endeavors.

University of Michigan William L. Clements Library: Library Research Fellowships

On almost any aspect of the American experience from 1492 through 1900, the Clements holdings—books, manuscripts, pamphlets, maps, prints and views, newspapers, photographs, ephemera—are among the best in the world. The potential for rewarding research at the Clements—on military history, gender and ethnicity, religion, the American Revolution, culinary history, Native Americans, politics and government, slavery and antislavery, the Civil War, travel and exploration—is remarkably strong.

Beginning in calendar year 2011, the Clements will offer several new fellowships for periods of one to four months' residence at the Library. These fellowships will provide senior scholars with support for extended visits to the Library in pursuit of research on significant projects.

University of Notre Dame Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies Visiting Research Fellowships

Deadline: 11/1

University of Pennsylvania: Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship in the Humanities

Deadline: 10/15

Five (5) one-year Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowships are available for the 2010-2011 academic year for untenured scholars in the humanities who received or will receive their Ph.D. between December 2001 and December 2009. The fellowship is open to all scholars, national and international, who meet application terms. The programs of the Penn Humanities Forum are conceived through yearly topics that invite broad interdisciplinary collaboration.

University of Pittsburg: Center for Philosophy of Science

The Center for Philosophy of Science is devoted to philosophy of science in all its forms. Offers visiting fellows and visiting scholars appointments: <http://www.pitt.edu/~pittcntr/People/people.htm>

U.S. Institute of Peace: Jennings Randolph Senior Fellowship Program

Provides scholars, policy analysts, policymakers, and other experts with opportunities to spend time in residence at the Institute, reflecting and writing on pressing international peace and security challenges. Senior Fellowships usually last for ten months, starting in October, but shorter-term fellowships are also available. See additional fellowship opportunities.

Vanderbilt University: Robert Penn Warren Center for The Humanities - William S. Vaughn Visiting Fellowship

Deadline: 1/15

The 2011/2012 Fellowship Program is entitled "Sacred Ecology: Landscape Transformations for Ritual Practice." The Warren Center will host a year-long interdisciplinary faculty seminar to explore the manifold experiences of complex ritual sites around the world and across all periods of human history. Sacred ecology refers to the human experience of divinity in relation to the natural environment, real or represented. Landscape is construed for the Center's purposes not simply as natural scenery, but as a cultural complex in which the natural world and human practice, conceptual and material, are dynamically linked and constantly interacting. An investigation of landscape may focus on pastoral or picturesque scenes, earthly elements and celestial movements, or constructed places and objects, such as a temple, altar, or stage. The Center is also interested in exploring the temporal rhythms of human landscape relations, whether regular or periodic, as well as the way in which transformations of space through activities enacted at sacred sites are received and replicated to encode other sacred spaces.

W. F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research: Fellowships

Fellowships are open to students and scholars in Near Eastern studies from prehistory through the early Islamic period, including the fields of archaeology, anthropology, art history, Bible, epigraphy, historical geography, history, language, literature, philology and religion and related disciplines.

William T. Grant Foundation: Funding Opportunities

Supports work to improve the settings of youth ages 8 to 25 in the United States. They fund research, fellowships, and service improvements that fit their Current Research Interests.

The Wolfsonian–Fiu Fellowship Program

Deadline: 12/31

The Wolfsonian offers fellowships for research on its collection for periods of three to five weeks. The focus of the Wolfsonian collection is on North American and European decorative arts, propaganda, architecture, and industrial and graphic design from the period 1885–1945. The United States, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, and the Netherlands are the countries most extensively represented. There are also smaller but significant collections of materials from a number of other countries, including Austria, Czechoslovakia, France, Japan, the former Soviet Union, and Hungary.

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars: Fellowships

Deadline: 10/1

The Center awards approximately 20-25 residential fellowships annually to individuals with outstanding project proposals in a broad range of the social sciences and humanities on national and/or international issues. Topics and scholarship should relate to key public policy challenges or provide the historical and/or cultural framework to illuminate policy issues of contemporary importance.

Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution Marine Policy Fellowship Program

The sponsor provides in-residence fellowships to professionals with a doctoral degree or its equivalent for a period of one year for research on the economic, legal, and policy issues that arise from use of the world's oceans. The one-year appointments carry a $56,000 stipend.

Yaddo: Artists in Residence Program

Deadlines: 8/1, 1/1

The sponsor's residency program supports visits by creative artists, enabling them to work without interruption in a supportive environment. Residencies vary in length from two weeks to eight weeks; the average stay is five weeks. Financial assistance is available to artists in need. Artists may be of any nationality.

Yale Institute of Sacred Music: Fellows Program

Deadline: 10/15

The sponsor seeks a group of Fellows from around the world to join its community of scholars and practitioners for one year. Scholars, religious leaders, or artists whose work is in or is turning toward the fields of sacred music, liturgical/ritual studies, or religion and the arts are invited to apply. Scholars in the humanities or in the social or natural sciences whose work is directly related to these areas are also encouraged to apply.

Yale University: Agrarian Studies Program Fellowships

Deadline: 1/3

The Agrarian Studies Program appoints fellows annually who are in residence for the year, present a paper, and attend the colloquia. This year the Program has four Fellows whose diversity reflects the breadth of the program, and a Research Affiliate who has already made an important contribution to agrarian studies. Applications are encouraged from knowledgeable "activists" and "public intellectuals" whose work on rural life transcends the academy. The broad theme for the colloquium series of the Program in Agrarian Studies, will be "Hinterlands, Frontiers, Cities, and States: Transactions and Identities. Younger scholars as well as established scholars are encouraged to apply. Fellows are expected to be in residence in New Haven to take an active part in the intellectual exchange with other members of the Program.

Young Center for Anabaptist and Pietist Studies: Fellows Program

Center Fellows typically spend one semester at the Young Center pursuing research related to the faith, history, and culture of Anabaptist and/or Pietist movements. The Center provides office space, various support services, access to library holdings, and a modest stipend toward housing and travel expenses. Fellows typically teach a seminar, present a public lecture, or organize an interpretive event during the period of residency. Fellows are responsible for their own salary support from sabbatical, research grant, or other sources.

International Opportunities

The American Academy in Berlin: Berlin Prize Residency Program

Deadline: 10/1

The Academy welcomes emerging as well as established scholars, writers, and professionals who wish to engage in independent study in Berlin. Around two dozen Berlin Prizes are conferred annually. Past Berlin Prize recipients have included historians, economists, poets, art historians, journalists, legal scholars, anthropologists, musicologists, public policy experts, and writers, among others.

American Academy in Rome: Rome Prize Eleven-Month Fellowships

The Rome Prize is awarded to emerging artists and scholars in the early or middle stages of their careers who represent the highest standard of excellence in the arts and humanities.

The American Center of Oriental Research, Amman, Jordan: Fellowships

American Councils for International Education: Title VIII Research Scholar Program

Deadline: 10/1

The sponsor provides full support for graduate students, faculty, and independent scholars seeking to conduct in-country, independent research and language training opportunities in the humanities, social sciences, linguistics, and area studies for three to nine months in Central Asia, Moldova, Russia, the South Caucasus, Southeast Europe, and Ukraine. While a wide-range of topics receive support each year, all funded research must contribute to a body of knowledge enabling the U.S. to better understand the region and formulate effective policies within it. All applicants should clearly describe the policy-relevance of their work, be it in anthropology, history, international relations, political science, or some other field.

American Councils for International Education: Title VIII Combined Research and Language Training Program

Deadline: 10/1

The sponsor provides support for graduate students and scholars who, in addition to support for research in the independent states of the former Soviet Union, require supplemental language instruction. Programs are available in Central Asia, Russia, the South Caucasus, Ukraine, and Moldova. While a wide range of topics receive support each year, all funded research must contribute to a body of knowledge enabling the U.S. to better understand the region and formulate effective policies within it. All applicants should clearly describe the policy-relevance of their work, be it in anthropology, history, international relations, political science, or some other field.

American Institute of Indian Studies Fellowship Competition

Deadline: 7/1

AIS welcomes applicants from a wide variety of disciplines. Applications to conduct research in India may be made in the following categories:

- Senior Research Fellowships: Available to scholars who hold the Ph.D. or its equivalent. Senior Fellowships are designed to enable scholars in all disciplines who specialize in South Asia to pursue further research in India. Senior Fellows establish formal affiliation with an Indian institution. Short-term awards are available for up to four months. Long-term awards are available for six to nine months. A limited number of humanists will be granted fellowships paid in dollars funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities.
- Senior Scholarly/Professional Development Fellowships: Available to established scholars who have not previously specialized in Indian studies and to established professionals who have not previously worked or studied in India. Senior Scholarly/Professional Development Fellows are formally affiliated with an Indian institution. Awards may be granted for periods of six to nine months.
- Senior Performing and Creative Arts Fellowships: Available to accomplished practitioners of the performing arts of India and creative artists who demonstrate that study in India would enhance their skills, develop their capabilities to teach or perform in the U.S., enhance American involvement with India's artistic traditions, and strengthen their links with peers in India. Awards will normally be for periods of up to four months, although proposals for periods of up to nine months can be considered.

American Institute for Sri Lankan Studies: Fellowship Program

Deadline: 12/1

The sponsor provides fellowships to support two to nine months of research in Sri Lanka by US citizens who already hold a PhD or the equivalent at the time they begin their fellowship tenure. Both scholars with little or no experience in Sri Lanka as well as specialists are encouraged to apply. Projects in all fields in the social sciences, humanities and policy sciences are eligible. Proposals in other areas that contribute to the understanding of Sri Lankan history, culture, or society are also invited.

The American Research Center in Egypt Fellowships for Research in Egypt

Deadline: 1/15

ARCE administers research fellowships for students enrolled in doctoral programs at North American universities, and for postdoctoral scholars and professionals affiliated with North American universities and research institutions. Fellowships are awarded for periods ranging from 3-12 months, depending on the funding source. Areas of study include Archaeology, Architecture, Art, Economics, Egyptology, History, Humanistic Social Sciences, Islamic Studies, Literature, Political Science, Religious Studies, Anthropology, Coptic Studies.

American Research Institute in Turkey: Fellowship Programs

The sponsor provides fellowships for research in Turkey on ancient, medieval, or modern times, in any field of the humanities and social sciences.

American-Scandinavian Foundation Fellowships/Grants to Study in Scandinavia

Deadline: 11/1

The sponsor, who promotes international understanding through educational and cultural exchange between the United States and Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden, offers one-year fellowships of up to two individuals to pursue research or study in one or more Scandinavian countries. Awards are made in all fields.

The Árni Magnússon Institute for Icelandic Studies: The Snorri Sturluson Icelandic Fellowships

Deadline: 10/31

Granted to writers, translators and scholars (not to university students) in the field of humanities, from outside Iceland, to enable them to stay in Iceland for a period of at least three months, in order to improve their knowledge of the Icelandic language, culture and society.

Australian Academy of Science Selby Travelling Fellowship

Deadline: 8/31

Fellowships are awarded to distinguished overseas scientists to visit Australia for public lecture/seminar tours and to visit scientific centers in Australia. Fellows are expected to increase public awareness of science and scientific issues and accordingly will be outstanding lecturers to the general lay public. See other travelling fellowships: <http://www.science.org.au/awards/travelling-fellowships.html>

Australian National University Humanities Research Centre: Visiting Fellowships

Deadline: February

Scholars working within any of the three large research themes/clusters are welcome to apply. These are: Crossing Cultures, Crossing Times Art, Creativity and Performance Lives, Literatures, Languages. The applicants' research should preferably fall within with one or more of the current research platforms operating under the three themes. These include Visual Culture, History and Memory, Biography and Life Writing, Culture, Heritage and the Environment, Public Cultures and Museums, World Literature, Postcolonial Studies, and Digital Humanities.

<http://rsha.anu.edu.au/visiting-fellowships>

Bogliasco Foundation/Liguria Study Center for the Arts and Humanities: Bogliasco Fellowships

Deadline: 2/1 and 5/1

Provides residential fellowships for qualified persons working on advanced creative or scholarly projects in the arts and humanities. The Study Center is one of the few residential institutions in the world dedicated exclusively to the humanistic disciplines: Archaeology, Architecture/Landscape Architecture,

Classics, Dance, Film/Video, History, Literature, Music, Philosophy, Theater, and the Visual Arts. The Study Center was founded in 1996; during thirteen years of activity it has hosted more than 500 fellows from 37 countries.

Approximately 50 Bogliasco Fellowships are awarded each year. They are scheduled during the two semesters of the traditional academic year. During 2010-2011 the dates are as follows: September 13 to December 17 (fall-winter), and February 9 to May 15 (winter-spring).

Calgary Institute for the Humanities: Fellowships

Deadline: the last Friday of October

The Calgary Institute for the Humanities was established at the University of Calgary in 1976 to foster advance study and research in a broad range of subject areas. It supports work in the traditional disciplines such as languages and literatures, philosophy, and history, as well as in philosophical and historical aspects of the social sciences, arts, sciences, and professional studies. The "humanities" are thus not conceived as a specific group of academic disciplines, but as forms of study that explore human reality and experience, guided by literature, by history, and by philosophical analysis and reflection.

The Camargo Foundation Fellowship Program

Deadline: 1/12

The Camargo Foundation, located in Cassis, France, is an interdisciplinary and multicultural residential center for scholars pursuing studies in the humanities and social sciences related to French and francophone cultures as well as for composers, writers, and visual artists (painters, sculptors, photographers, filmmakers, video artists, and new media artists) pursuing creative projects.

Center for Chinese Studies: Research Grant Program to Assist Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies

This program is designed for foreign professors, associate professors, assistant professors and doctoral candidates in departments related to Chinese studies at foreign universities, as well as researchers at related foreign academic institutes. Research tenure is three months to one year.

The Centre for Environmental Economics and Policy in Africa \(CEEPA\): Visiting International Fellowships for enhancing capacity of African Institutions in Environmental Economics

The sponsor offers one Visiting International Fellowship annually. This fellowship program is designed to support the contribution of internationally renowned scholars in this field to teaching, research and curricula development activities at any of the participating departments in eastern and southern African universities. The international fellow will be required to spend a considerable period of time at these departments or at CEEPA supporting teaching, curricula development, supervision of students' thesis and faculty research activities.

Centre for International Education: Sabbatical Position

The sponsor offers a sabbatical position for qualified candidates tenable at University of Ilorin, Ilorin, Nigeria. Core functions might include any of the following: - Conducting research and publishing reports; Preparation of research proposals for funding and contribution to the general development of research capacity in the University; Supervision of postgraduate students; Limited teaching in undergraduates, short time courses and postgraduate programs; Establishing networks and linkages with other national and international research institutions and funding organizations.

The Center for Khmer Studies: Senior Fellowship Competition for U.S. Scholars

Deadline: 11/15

Scholars can pursue research in other countries in mainland Southeast Asia (Thailand, Laos, Vietnam, Burma, Southern China) provided that part of their research is undertaken in Cambodia. Senior Fellowships are open to scholars in all disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities to pursue further research in Cambodia and Southeast Asia. Short-term awards are available for up to four months. Long-term awards are available for six to nine months. Fellowships for four months or less have some travel restrictions.

Council of American Overseas Research Centers Multi-Country Research Fellowship

Deadline: 1/15

Fellowships provide up to $10,000 to conduct research in more than one country, at least one of which hosts a participating American overseas research center. U.S. doctoral candidates and established scholars may conduct research on broad questions of regional or trans-regional significance in the fields of humanities, social sciences and related natural sciences. The duration of the fellowship is three months.

Council on Foreign Relations, Inc. International Affairs Fellowship in Japan

Deadline: 9/30

Fellowships are provided to enable a number of young American leaders and thinkers to expand their intellectual and professional horizons and enhance their understanding of Japan by spending a period of policy-oriented research or related professional activity in Japan. The program provides fellows the opportunity to carry out research while affiliated with a cooperating institution in Japan. The goal of the fellowship is to strengthen the U.S.-Japan relationship by expanding American understanding of Japan and enhancing communication between Americans and Japanese on global problems.

Council for International Exchange of Scholars: Fulbright Programs for U.S. Scholars

Deadline: 8/1

The flagship international educational exchange program sponsored by the U.S. government and is designed to — increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries. Grantees lecture and conduct research in a wide variety of academic and professional fields.

European University Institute Programs and Fellowships

Fulbright-Hays Faculty Research Abroad Fellowship Program

This program funds fellowships through institutions of higher education (IHEs) to faculty members who propose to conduct research abroad in modern foreign languages and area studies to improve their skill in languages and their knowledge of the culture of the people of these countries. Funds support: travel expenses to and from the residence of the fellow and the country or countries of research, a maintenance stipend for the fellow related to his or her academic year salary, and an allowance for research-related expenses overseas such as books and photocopying, tuition, affiliation fees, local travel, and other incidental expenses.

Gladstone's Library at Saint Deiniol: Sabbatical Scholarships

The sponsor providing a scholarship to those studying in the fields of Christian Liturgy, Biblical Studies or Church History. The scholarship will cover the full costs of accommodation, full board and use of the library. They are awarded from a week to several months and are open to all scholars.

Harvard University Center for Italian Renaissance Studies

Villa I Tatti in Florence offers up to fifteen fellowships each academic year for advanced research in any aspect of the Italian Renaissance. Each Fellow is offered a place to study, use of the Biblioteca and Fototeca Berenson, lunches on weekdays, and various other privileges, the most important of which is the opportunity to meet scholars from a variety of countries working in related fields

Hebrew University: The Lady Davis Fellowship Trust

Provides support for full or associate professors to teach or conduct research for two to four months at the Hebrew University of Israel.

International Institute for Asian Studies \(IIAS\) Fellowships

These positions are intended for outstanding researchers from around the world to work on an important piece of research in the social sciences and humanities. Interdisciplinary interests are encouraged. We also welcome researchers who would like to work on a collaborative grant proposal or develop their PhD thesis into book publication. The Institute is particularly looking for researchers focusing on the three clusters: Asian Cities, Heritage and Social Agency in Asia, and Global Asia, whose contours are described below. However some positions will be reserved for outstanding projects in any area outside of those listed. Applicants should mention which category they are applying to or if none, indicate — open category. Applications which link to more than one field are also welcome.

International Institute for Asian Studies \(IIAS\): Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Postdoctoral Fellowship

These fellowships are part of collaboration between IIAS and the Nalanda-Sriwijaya Centre at ISEAS, Singapore. The positions are intended for outstanding recent doctoral graduates (within 6 years of receiving Ph.D. degree) from around the world, to work on an important piece of research in the social sciences or humanities. The proposed project should relate to the ways in which Asian polities and societies have interacted over time through religious, cultural, and economic exchanges and diasporic networks.

International Research & Exchanges Board \(IREX\)

For over 40 years, IREX has been administering research and exchange opportunities in Eastern Europe and Eurasia. In that time, over 6,000 American scholars have participated in IREX programs. The IREX program portfolio currently includes six opportunities for scholars and professionals to engage in the region.

See Individual Advanced Research Opportunities Program for more info, including most recent RFP for Fellows.

International Research Center for Japanese Studies: Visiting Research Scholars

The sponsor seeks to promote comprehensive, international, and interdisciplinary research on Japanese culture, and to foster cooperation among researchers in Japanese studies worldwide. In order to broaden and deepen research on Japanese culture and bring together researchers in a variety of specialized fields, the Center regularly appoints a number of scholars from around the world as Visiting Research Scholars.

Internationales Forschungszentrum Kulturwissenschaften \(IFK\): Senior and Research Fellowships

Deadline: 7/1

The sponsor supports excellent scholars, who are well advanced in their academic careers in the area of transdisciplinary cultural analysis and the study of culture.

Irish-American Cultural Institute: Visiting Fellowship in Irish Studies at National University of Ireland-Galway

The sponsor provides funding for fellowships of four months or more at the National University Ireland-Galway, for scholars normally resident in the United States whose work deals with any aspect of Irish Studies. The stipend is $4,000 plus transatlantic travel.

Japan Foundation: Fellowships Program

Support is provided to scholars and researchers who are conducting research related to Japan (comparative research included) with methods in the humanities and social sciences, whose projects require them to travel to Japan to carry out research, gather materials, etc. intensively over a short period of time.

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science Fellowship for Research in Japan: Long-Term Program

The JSPS Invitation Fellowship for Research in Japan (Long Term) is offered to promote international scientific cooperation and exchange. It allows researchers employed at designated Japanese research institutions to invite fellow researchers from other countries to Japan to participate in cooperative activities at their research institutions. All fields of the humanities, social sciences and natural sciences are included under this program.

Korea Foundation: Fellowships for Field Research

Support is provided for scholars who are university professors and instructors, doctoral candidates, professional researchers at research institutes and other qualified professionals who want to conduct field research on relevant subjects in Korea. Duration is from one to twelve months. Fellows receive a monthly stipend and round-trip international airfare.

Marshall Sherfield Fellowships

The sponsor provides funding to enable American scientists or engineers to undertake post-doctoral research for a period of one to two academic years at a British university or research institute.

The aim of the Marshall Sherfield Fellowships is to introduce American scientists and engineers to the cutting edge of UK science and engineering. It is intended that this in turn will build longer-term contacts and international links between the United Kingdom and the United States in key scientific areas.

Matsumae International Foundation Fellowship Program

Deadline: 8/31

The sponsor is offering up to twenty fellowships of three to six months in duration (the sponsor prefers longer stays) from April 2012 to March 2013 for doctorate degree holders who have never been to Japan. The aim of the Matsumae International Foundation is to invite active young research workers of outstanding character, without regard to sex, race, religion, ideology or nationality, to Japan to undertake a period of research. Fields of study such as natural science, engineering and medicine are given first priority.

National Council for Eurasian and East European Research \(NCEEER\) Programs for U.S. Scholars

NCEEER was created in 1978 to develop and sustain long-term, high quality programs of post-doctoral research about the social, political, economic and historical development of Russia, Eurasia, and Eastern Europe. Among national research organizations, NCEEER is the largest provider of resources to U.S. scholars for postdoctoral research in these fields. Its support for research on the region has produced direct benefits for U.S. policymakers, the academic community, nonprofit organizations and American business. The projects it has funded have helped people from all of these fields gain a better understanding of current developments and future prospects in the post-communist countries of Europe and Eurasia. NCEEER has also been involved in bringing to the attention of Congress and the executive branch the national interest served by the exchange of ideas among professionals in academia and government.

Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada Visiting Fellowships in Canadian Government Laboratories Program

Provides promising emerging scientists and engineers with the opportunity to work with research groups or leaders in Canadian government laboratories and research institutions. Fellowships are awarded for one year with the possibility of renewal for a second and third year, at the discretion of the government department concerned.

National University of Singapore/Asia Research Institute: \(Senior\) Research Fellowships, One-Year Visiting \(Senior\) Research Fellowships and Postdoctoral Fellowships

The positions are intended for outstanding active researchers from around the world, to work on an important piece of research in the social sciences and humanities. Interdisciplinary interests are encouraged. Up to three months of a 12-month fellowship may be spent conducting fieldwork in the Asian region.

Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities and Social Sciences Fellowships

Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies Visiting Fellowships

These fellowships are offered to support research in any area of the arts, humanities, or the social sciences that has relevance to the study of Islam or the Muslim world (particularly anthropology, economics, geography, history, international relations, law, literature, philosophy, politics, religion, and sociology).

Palestinian American Research Center \(PARC\): Fellowship Competition for U.S. Scholars Conducting Field-Based Research on Palestine

Deadline: 1/15

The sponsor awards post-doctoral and/or doctoral research fellowships in Palestinian studies. Any area or time period of Palestinian studies will be considered, including the humanities, social sciences, economics, law, health and science. The research must contribute to Palestinian studies.

Research Council of Norway: Leiv Eiriksson Mobility Programme \(IS-BILAT\)

Offers grants to Ph.D. students and academic personnel for research stays of 3 to 12 months in the US, Canada or Norway. The program aims to contribute to the long-term escalation of R&D collaboration with the USA and Canada by allowing more Norwegian researchers to spend time in the U.S. or Canada, and vice versa.

Rhodes University, South Africa: Post-Doctoral Fellowships in the Sciences

The Fellowships are intended to foster existing academic research and scholarly or creative activities within university departments and institutes. Ideally a Fellow's proposed work will closely complement existing programs in the host department. The Fellowships are intended to foster existing academic research and scholarly or creative activities within university departments and institutes.

Rhodes University, South Africa: Hobart Houghton Fellowship

The fellowship is intended to promote work of scientific value, relevant to the economic problems of the Eastern Cape, which could contribute to the development of the region.

Rhodes University, South Africa: Hugh Le May Fellowship

Available in alternate years to senior scholars who wish to devote themselves to advanced work in one of the following subjects: Philosophy, Classics, Ancient, Medieval or Modern History, Classical, Biblical, Medieval or Modern Languages, Political Theory, Law. Where there is no applicant of sufficient merit in any of the above disciplines, the Fellowship may be awarded to an applicant in another discipline within the Faculty of Humanities. The Fellowship is between three and six months duration.

Rhodes University, South Africa: Hugh Kelly Fellowship

Support is provided to enable senior scientists (with at least a Ph.D. qualification) to devote themselves to advanced work in any one of the Science Departments of Rhodes University, South Africa: Biochemistry and Microbiology, Botany, Chemistry, Computer Science, Geography, Geology, Human Kinetics & Ergonomics, Ichthyology and Fisheries Science, Mathematical Statistics, Mathematics (Pure & Applied), Pharmaceutical Sciences, Physics & Electronics, Zoology and Entomology and the Institute for Water Research.

Rockefeller Foundation/Bellagio Study & Conference Center Creative Arts Residencies at the Bellagio Center

Bellagio creative arts residencies – for composers, novelists, playwrights, poets, video/filmmakers and visual artists – provide time for disciplined work, individual reflection, and collegial engagement, uninterrupted by the usual professional and personal demands. Artists of significant achievement, from any country, are welcome to apply. Creative Artist Residencies last four weeks. The sponsor is especially interested in applicants whose work connects in some way with the Rockefeller Foundation's issue areas, and the sponsor also selects each cohort for diversity to ensure that interdisciplinary and international connections remain an integral part of the Bellagio experience. In addition, the Center offers collaborative residencies for two to four people working on the same project.

Rotary International

Science Foundation Ireland: E.T.S. Walton Visitor Awards Program

The program involves bringing high-calibre international individuals to Ireland to work with researchers in Ireland to carry out research for a fixed period of time. E.T.S. Walton Visitor Awards are offered on a worldwide competitive basis.

University of British Columbia Centre for Women's and Gender Studies: Visiting and Community Scholars

The goal of the Centre is to stimulate feminist research and to facilitate interchange of ideas and collaboration among scholars, at UBC and elsewhere. Scholars will be expected to participate in the activities of the Centre and to give a public lecture during their term. In its selection of visitors, the Centre hopes to create a diverse community of junior and senior scholar-researchers.

The University of East Anglia: Visiting Research Fellowships

The Sainsbury Research Unit offers two Visiting Research Fellowships in each academic year for the study of the arts of Africa, Oceania and the Americas. Normal duration is three months, coinciding with Autumn and Spring terms. Applications are welcomed from scholars of appropriate standing in such fields of the Humanities and Social Sciences as Anthropology, Art History, Archaeology, History and related disciplines.

The University of Edinburgh Institute for Advanced Studies in the Humanities Visiting Research Fellowships

Deadline: 2/26

The sponsor offers Visiting Research fellowships of between two and six months in the Humanities and Social Sciences.

The University of Edinburgh Genomics Research and Policy Forum Bright Ideas Visiting Fellowship and Residency Program

The scheme is open to anyone concerned with the social dimensions of genetics, genomics and the new life sciences, whether natural or medical scientists, medical practitioners, social scientists, artists, writers and musicians, policy makers and others working in public service and civil society, and individuals from the worlds of industry and commerce. These fellowships provide an exciting opportunity for individuals to spend a period of time - anything between a few days and two months - in residence at the Forum.

University of Melbourne Redmond Barry Fellowship

Deadline: 4/30

The sponsor provides funding for a fellowship to be awarded to scholars and writers to facilitate research and the production of works of literature that utilize the superb collections of the State Library of Victoria and the University of Melbourne. Up to $20,000 shall be awarded to assist with travel, living and research expenses. Fellows will be based at the State Library of Victoria for three to six months.

Fellowships are open to scholars and writers from Australia and overseas.

University of St. Andrews Centre for Ethics, Philosophy and Public Affairs: Research Fellowship

The sponsor is seeking to provide fellowship to individuals who will engage in an area of philosophy relevant to the work of the Centre, but this requirement is broadly interpreted. Fellows are also expected to take part in Centre activities that take place during their tenure of the fellowship; fellows also participate in and contribute to research seminars in the Department of Moral Philosophy.

University of Windsor Humanities Research Group Visiting Humanities Fellowships

Deadline: 3/15

Scholars with research projects in traditional humanities disciplines or in theoretical, historical or philosophical aspects of the sciences, social sciences, arts and professional studies are invited to apply. Individuals engaged in interdisciplinary research are particularly encouraged to apply. The Fellowship is tenable at the University of Windsor for a period of four months to one year. No stipend is attached to the Fellowship. The Humanities Research Group will provide office space, university affiliation, library privileges and assist Fellows in establishing contacts with individuals, groups, libraries and institutions in the Southwestern Ontario/Michigan region. Fellows are expected to work in residence at the HRG for the duration of the award and to deliver a public presentation on their research.

Other Items of Interest

<http://www.sabbaticalhomes.com/>

A web site that lets scholars who are planning sabbaticals or other trips search for apartments and house-sitting opportunities around the world.